From Barbara . . .

How much of your life is controlled by your job? In this day of 24/7 access, we often find ourselves working when we are away from the office because we have access to e-mail and our colleagues have our cell phone number. I can't tell you the number of times I've been with friends and at least one of us (usually more) feels the need to check e-mails and phone messages or even take calls when we should be relaxing and enjoying the company of each other. I know many people whose job intrudes on their family life as well. Jobs, and the salaries we make from them, are important, but they should not interrupt our time away. We all need time to rejuvenate and refresh ourselves. We need time with family and friends to remind us of the other things that are important in our lives like family, recreational, and spiritual activities. Take time this week to ensure that you have a healthy balance in your life between work, family, fun, and spirituality.

It's a little late but thanks to all who worked so hard on the Labor Day Festival. Once again it was a very successful event. The many people who contributed donated items and/or spent hours working played a huge part in its success. If you missed it, mark your calendar for next year. We'll be there.

And just as we finish with Labor Day we begin to prepare for our Colorfest Crabcake and Sausage stand as well as the yard sale at St. Anthony's the same weekend. Once again we rely on your generosity for donated items such as baked goods, sodas, bottled water and a variety of other items. Check the plates in the back of church for what we need. Without you our fundraising events would not be as successful as they are. We will also need people to volunteer to help work at the stand throughout the weekend. I hope you all will consider helping in some way.

May God continue to bless us all.
